3Shape TRIOS Wins “Best of Class” Award for Record-Breaking Six Years in a Row

Copenhagen, September 25, 2018 – 3Shape TRIOS intraoral scanner receives 2018 Cellerant “Best of Class” Award for intraoral scanners. This marks a record-breaking six years in a row that 3Shape TRIOS wins the Best of Class” award in the digital impression solution category.

“The Cellerant Best of Class Technology Award continues to highlight the innovative dental technologies that are shaping the future of our profession. As a six-time winner, 3Shape continues to impress the panel with its accomplishments. The dental community is very fortunate to have you in our space,” says Dr. Lou Shuman, Best of Class founder and Cellerant CEO.

Since 3Shape launched the TRIOS intraoral scanner in 2011, it has won the Cellerant “Best in Class” award for digital impression solutions every year – now six years in a row!

3Shape TRIOS is the world’s first and only wireless intraoral scanner. The digital impression solution is recognized for its documented accuracy, scanning speeds and ease of use. TRIOS provides professionals with an unrivalled and open ecosystem of workflow and partner-integrations with orthodontic, implant-makers, practice management and sleep treatment providers, as well as open and trusted manufacturing options with 3D printers and milling machines.

3Shape TRIOS helps doctors to excite their patients by bringing digital dental impressions and treatments to life. The intraoral scanner is supported by an ever-growing number of patient-excitement apps like, 3Shape Smile Design, Treatment Simulator, TRIOS Patient Monitoring* and more.

“What makes the Cellerant “Best of Class” award so special is that the winners are chosen by a panel of doctors and industry professionals. That means recipients need to demonstrate real and measurable benefits to practitioners as well as bringing outstanding value to the practice. We are very proud that the panel has recognized 3Shape TRIOS, now for the sixth straight year in a row,” says Tais Clausen, 3Shape Co-CEO and Co-founder.

“The award winners have revolutionized, simplified, or advanced their category in a meaningful way,” said Dr. John Flucke, Cellerant CDO and Best of Class panel member. “We also make sure that winning technologies work in our actual practice settings providing confidence in recommending them to our peers.”

The 2018 Best of Class panel consists of Founder, Dr. Lou Shuman; John Flucke, DDS, Technology Editor for Dental Products Report; Paul Feuerstein, DMD, Technology Editor for Dentistry Today; Marty Jablow, DMD, known as America’s Technology Coach; Pam Maragliano-Muniz, DMD, Associate
